ATTENTION: PARENTS

RECOGNIZING DRUG USE IN CHILDREN

The Springfield Police Department will be giving seminars on “Recognizing Drug Use In Children”. These seminars will demonstrate the physical characteristics associated with drug use in children, along with some of the common drug paraphernalia that could be found by parents.

The seminars are designed to help parents recognize what they are seeing in children, and adults, early on before the dangers of drug addiction are realized.

Where: Springfield Township Administration Building
Springfield Room – Lower Level
50 Powell Road, Springfield, PA 19064

When: Contact Officer Sean Clifton, Springfield Police Dept., by calling 610-544-1100, Ext. 407, or you may email sclifton@springfieldpd.com, and provide your contact information. You will be notified with the dates and the times of upcoming seminars.

PLEASE, NO CHILDREN AT THE SEMINARS
