

Springfield Police Department
50 Powell Rd
Springfield, PA 19064

610.544.1100 Non-Emergency
610.544.6900 Administration
610.544.6905 FAX
Twitter- @SPD91_Delco
FB- @springfielddelcopolicedepartment

Weekly Press Blotter November 15, 2021

11-10-21 2124 hrs.

Officers responded to the Target 800 block Baltimore Pk. for a report of a subject who stole a numerous amount of baby formula and other items. The subject left and fled in a vehicle. Officers in the area stopped the vehicle and identified the driver who was a 31 yr. old from Chester. The male was identified by Target employees as the thief. Recovered from the trunk of his vehicle was a large amount of Target merchandise. The male will be charged with Retail Theft.

11-10-21 1555 hrs.

An employee at Macy's at the mall reported that after work she found someone had removed the catalytic converter from her vehicle which was parked in the lot.

11-12-21 0014 hrs.

A resident of the 900 block Stewart Av. reported an object had been thrown through his front door damaging glass. Officers found a lug nut wrench had been thrown through the glass door. Det. McNeely is investigating.

11-13-21 1245 hrs.

Officers were called to the 500 block Baltimore Pk. to investigate a driver of a vehicle who was semi-conscious. They located the 36 yr. old female from Drexel Hill and found her to be intoxicated. They also located heroin paraphernalia inside the vehicle. Witnesses said the female had been stopped in traffic slumped over the driver steering wheel before they assisted her to a parking lot. The female was given medical treatment and transported to a hospital. She will be charged with DUI and drug offenses.

11-14-21 0140 hrs.

Officers observed a vehicle being driven with two flat front tires on the unit block N. State Rd. The vehicle was stopped, and the driver was found to be intoxicated and under the influence of marijuana. The 22 yr. old female from Drexel Hill was taken into custody and submitted to a blood test. She was later turned over to family, and charges for DUI are pending.

11-14-21 1621 hrs.

Two juvenile females from Chester were taken into custody after employees at Macy's reported they had stolen over $200 worth of clothing. They were later turned over the family, and charges for Retail Theft will be filed.